Save 40% on Einova's 20,000-mAh fast-charging Eggtronic power bank

This 63-watt charger can charge up to three devices at once, including phones and most PD laptops, for $42.

Eggtronic

Every few days I run across a discounted power bank, but I don't share most of those deals because they're just not interesting enough. After all, your typical 10,000-mAh charger is a dime a dozen. But what about an ultrafast 20,000-mAh power bank with three outputs and the ability to deliver up to 63 watts of total power to one or more devices? Throw a soft

The best wireless charger we've tested

Over the last couple of years, wireless chargers have become more popular, and with the rise in want from the market, more and more companies have popped up with their version or offering, so we thought we would test a slew of charges and see which was the best.

First, we went in search of well designed wireless chargers that would compliment a space. Aka, we weren't looking for white plastic. We were looking for something with a modern design that would add to the aesthetic of the room.

So we spent a few days looking around and made a few selections. As they arrived, we tested them over the next 30 days, and while we would be happy to share our finding for all of them, we only write about what we truly love, and one charger we tested stood hands and shoulders above the rest. That device was the Einova by Eggtronic's Wireless Charging Stone.

REVIEW: UNIVERSAL POWER ADAPTER AND POWERBANK BY EGGTRONIC

March 21, 2021

Unless you're iPhone (or someone who follows in their footstep), electronic products still come with power adapters. So, the natural question is – why would anyone want to buy a separate power adapter? The answer boils down to convince and luxury.

The Sirius 65 W Universal charger by Eggtronic (amazon affiliate link) claims to be the world's smallest 65 W USB-C GaN power adapter. It will charge more or less everything you need it to charge. In a word where even smart phones are charging at 120 W, it makes sense to carry around a universal charger with higher watt. Sirius adapter comes in two color – white and black.

Mundus Pro UV-C Disinfectant Accessories Tray and Fast Qi Wireless Charging Dock

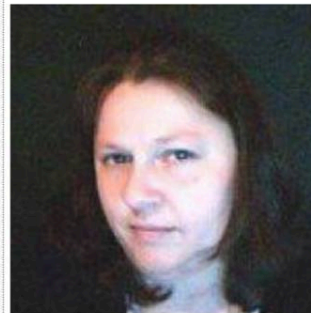

You can never be too careful protecting yourself and your family against illness-causing microbes. Microbes or microorganisms are everywhere; you do not know when and where you would pick up these germs. Consequently, you need a foolproof means of disinfecting yourself and your devices.

Of course, you can wash your hands and apply hand sanitizer, but how do you disinfect your devices? Mundus Pro UV-C Disinfectant Accessories Tray from Einova is the answer! It offers microbe-killing protection by disinfecting your devices such as mobile phones, sunglasses, keys, jewelry, wallet, and other essentials.

Mundus Pro UV-C Disinfectant Accessories Tray is a device designed to provide seamless disinfection from microbes and other pathogens. It is a UV-C disinfecting device designed to provide four-layer microbe-killing protection. The four layers of protection include two types of UV-C light (LEDs and lamps), the titanium dioxide – the photocatalytic agent, and the ozone.

Mundus Pro UV-C Disinfectant Accessories Tray also acts as fast wireless charging dock, having two built-in 10W fast wireless charging spots certified by Qi and one USB-A 18W port. This allows you to power and charges three devices simultaneously.

KEEPING SAFE—AND CHARGED— WITH MUNDUS PRO UV-C DISINFECTANT

As the possibility to travel gets nearer with the advent of the vaccine, people will be more likely to get out of the house and return to their normal activities, including going to the gym, shopping, traveling and enjoying a night out on the town. It's not uncommon to set your phone, keys or even mask on a dirty surface like shopping carts, counters and gym equipment without thinking twice. Save your Lysol wipes and use the EINOVA MUDUS UV-C Disinfectant and Wireless Charging Accessories Tray to kill 99.99% of germs and bacteria on high-touch items in as little as eight minutes. The Mundus Pro also features two wireless charging spots on the top of the case to quickly recharge phones and other compatible devices.

Marble wireless phone charger by Einova is designed in Italy.

By Gregg Ellman Tribune News Service | MARCH 10, 2021 — 9:39AM

EINOVA

Einova marble wireless phone charger is available in five genuine marble colors, and each has a unique cut, finish and marble pattern.

Is it possible to call a wireless phone charger elegant or a piece of art? That might be a stretch, but check out the new marble wireless phone charger by Einova. Designed in Italy, it is rendered in solid marble or other stone with an artisanal touch.

Available in seven colors — four shades of marble plus lava, sandstone and travertine — each has a unique pattern. The 4.65-inch rounded charger ($60, einova.com) can produce 5W, 7.5W and up to 10W of fast charging for capable devices.

As for performance, there's not a lot to say except that it worked. Some wireless chargers that I've tested make you find the exact spot to lay it down and charge. But with the piece of marble, as long my iPhone 12Pro was somewhat centered, the charging started.

Attached to the 20-ounce stone is a high-quality and durable braided 3-foot USB cable for powering the Qi-Certified charger. A USB wall charger is included. The bottom is lined with a soft fabric to ensure it won't scratch

Who Speaks for the Arts in Technology?

By Shane

Is the secret DNA to disruptive technology the perfect harmonization of science and liberal arts?

We are aware that Apple is known for its creative, sleek and luxurious products. Its founder, Steve Jobs's helped transform more than the engineering of consumer electronics. Jobs shared the secret to Apple's success during the unveiling of the iPad 2.

"It is in Apple's DNA that technology alone is not enough—it's technology married with liberal arts, married with the humanities, that yields us the results that make our heart sing."

Elegance in Electronics

Looking to incorporate the genetic code of Job's mantra, Italian entrepreneur Einova has created an Wireless Charging device that can only be described as Stylish, Elegant and Transformative.

Disinfecting Accessories Tray

Antiseptic wipes are pretty much a requirement in the age of COVID-19, and they are great for cleaning just about everything — except cell phones. They leave the phones wet and smelling like a hospital. Who wants that? Well, Einova is shedding some light on how to solve that problem. In December 2020 it released the Mundus Pro, an accessories tray that disinfects items using UV light and charges your phone and other electronic devices.

Just place your phone — or sunglasses, pens, AirPods, or whatever else you might want disinfected — inside the tray, close the lid, and push the start button. After an eight-minute cycle, 99.99 percent of all ugly, icky viruses and bacteria are dead. The EPA and a couple of independent laboratories certified the results, so take that, COVID-19. Price is $119.99.

Hands on: Upgrading our workspace with the Eggtronic Wireless Charging Stone

We take a look at Eggtronic's Wireless Charging Stone — a real stone Qi-charging pad that keeps your iPhone topped up and adds a stylish flair to your workspace.

While charging pads are convenient, we admit that we don't always want to leave an item that screams "I'm for charging your phone!" sitting on the corner of a desk. Most charging pads are highly conspicuous, often sporting the name of the manufacturer and attention-snagging LEDs.

Italian accessory maker Eggtronic has come up with a genius solution: a wireless charging pad made out of stone. Free from any logos and lights, this sleek charging pad adds a little luxe to your workspace while

KRISTI GUSTAFSON BARLETTE

These are a few of my favorite things

By Kristi Gustafson Barlette on January 26, 2021 at 6:16 AM

Each year, when I ask readers what they'd like to see more often, 'personal recommendations' always tops the list. I'm guessing it's the influence of all those influencers that sparks that idea.

Unlike them, I don't get anything — financial or otherwise — from these recos. This is just a mini collection of a few things I've been loving, starting with:

The miracle thaw defrosting tray: These metal trays defrost your meat (much) faster than if you let it sit in the fridge — or even out on the counter (which, by some estimations, isn't the safest method). My sister-in-law and her boyfriend got me one of these for Christmas and it's my new favorite 'gadget.'

Yesterday, I defrosted a 3-pound, marinated London broil in a few hours (normally this would take days in the fridge). Recently, it also took a 2.5-pound meatloaf from a block of ice after lunch to cookable by dinner (and we eat early).

The product uses no chemicals, no electricity, no water.

Wireless Charging Stone Gift Idea

GIFTS LIFESTYLE REVIEWS

I once read that people like to receive gifts that they can get some use out of. Some may argue with that, but when I really thought about it, useful gifts are my favorite gifts. Sure, getting jewelry is nice, but my Kindle is still one of my favorite gifts I've ever gotten. Sometimes those useful gifts are things that seem nice, but you don't buy for yourself on a random day. However, when you get it as a gift, you're thrilled! The marble wireless charging stone by Einova by Eggtronic is exactly one of those type of gifts!

I received a marble charging stone for the purpose of this review.*

Valentine's Day Round up for Him Lava Stone Wireless Phone Charger

Are you looking for that special Valentine Gift for that special man in your life? I know a great tech gift that your special someone will absolutely love. Eggtronic Lava Stone Wireless Phone Charger would be a great gift for that man in your life. I know that I'm always stumped trying to find a gift that he can use or want.

This charger is mined from solid rock. I will be honest that I have never seen a charger look as cool as this one. It's made of natural stone shaped using diamond-tipped blades. When making this charger they use materials that have minimal impact on the environment that won't harm the quality of air within your home. Something that I learned is that some plastic based charges may omit harmful VOCs.

What I love about wireless charging is that you can charge your smartphone without any cables. I always tend to bend the cable and ruin them. Sometimes they over heat or they won't charge your phone. This charges your phone by laying your phone on the charger. This is a fast 10W charging. You will have to have a compatible device for your phone to charge. This works great for iPhone 11/12, iPhone 11/12 Pro, iPhone 12 mini, XS, XS Max and XR, and this is compatible with all other Qi-enabled devices including the Samsung Galaxy S10, S9, and S9 Plus, AirPods 2, AirPods Pro, Galaxy Buds and Pixel buds.

What is included in the package: you will receive a wireless charging stone, power supply, integrated cable 3ft, USB wall charger, and a user guide. This would make a perfect and practical gift for Valentine's Day or even Father's Day. What I really like about this charger is that it goes well in a home. I like the design and it sleek where it will fit in with any home design. It won't stand out like a sore thumb like the white chargers. I would highly recommend investing in one of these chargers for your phone. You can find their link below.

It seems Coronavirus will never end. Over the last year or so, we've made changes, adapt, changed again, and adapted again. For us, we recently started walking again. I realized we needed to focus on our fitness and health again. This time at home has allowed me to find time to organize, clean, and downsize. I believe I have downsized at least 5 times already. And since HGTV isn't returning my calls right now, I'm left to my own devices here. It's fine. We've managed to pin down some of the best accent décor pieces off Amazon that will surely transform your (also: my) space in spring 2021.

The best part about these interior design hacks off Amazon is that some of them are total dupes for more expensive pieces you might find at your other fave places to shop. So, let's take advantage of the Amazon décor selects that will revamp your space, no questions asked.

CONTAIN

I start to put my things away neatly but I make sure to use containers. And yes, I know, organizing supplies can be expensive so don't get caught up in having to make it super fancy. If you have empty jewelry boxes or iPhone boxes laying around you can use those as drawer organizers! Check out your local dollar store for other cheap bins and baskets. Now you get to put things back and use containers and organizers to keep them together. This is where you want to think in zones like they did on The Home Edit. Put like items together so it makes sense to find them and to put them away. Rubber stamp supplies can all go in the same bin or drawer in your craft nook. Put your books all on one bookshelf so they're all together in your little library.

MAINTAIN

This is where you use labels to keep your spot organized and ensure that you will always put things back in the correct spot so you can maintain the organization. You can make your own labels or buy ones that you can write on. However you do this part is up to you. But you definitely want to label things so you and everyone else in your home is reminded where something needs to be put away.

After you do this, you'll probably be pretty obsessed with what you did. This will get you motivated to move on to other areas. And of course if you aren't satisfied, you may need to revisit certain areas and work on them again and again. The reward is worth it so keep going!

I love having a decluttered home. I have done many simple things to make different areas of my home more neat and tidy with less clutter.

GEAR REVIEW: CHARGER AND BATTERIES

Review and photos by Lynn Rosen

Our favorite charger charges our favorite batteries. Bonus!

Now, with the COVID-19 virus influencing our vacation and travel plans, the great outdoors has become our venue of choice for gatherings and lots of recreation. As a result, we're all tending to pack along with us more than just the tents, tarps and trail maps. Cell phones, laptops, lights, cameras and GPS devices, all operated by batteries that need changing or - better yet - recharging, have become necessities for outdoor adventurers. We've found a pair of favorites in these categories - paleblueearth.com AA and AAA batteries that plug into our favorite eggtronics.com charger. Both devices are completely rechargeable.

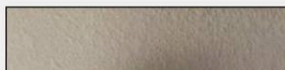

The Laptop Power Bank can charge multiple devices at the same time.

Even mini-vacuums can get running power from the Power Bank.

This Eggtronic 20,000mAh high-capacity Laptop Power Bank charger will keep your gadgets charged when there isn't a wall outlet for miles. (Fully charge this charger before you leave on your trip.) The portable charger, designed to power multiple devices while on the go, comes equipped with two USB-A ports to recharge phones, tablets and cameras. It also has a 45W Power Delivery USB-C port that will fast-charge compatible laptops, including MacBookAir® and MacBook Pro® - up to 15 full charges. The 4" x 7" x 1/2" power bank is covered in soft, water-repellent linen canvas and has a built-in LED indicator light that instantly tells you how much battery life is left on the charger in one clear bright blue number. It even charged and operated a mini-computer vacuum to clean the pine needles off our keyboard.

Einova Mundus Pro Sanitizer

The COVID-19 pandemic may have put a major damper on most people's travel plans in 2020, but with the arrival of several COVID-19 vaccines and people antsy to get out of the house, it looks like 2021 will be a busy year for travelers. However, it is critical to still keep your guard up and hand sanitizer bottle at the ready during the pandemic as well as a compact way to disinfect germs on your high touch items like phones, keys, wallet and masks. The new Einova Mundus Pro UV-C Disinfectant and Wireless Charging Accessories Tray is reportedly the only UV-C case that is certified by the EPA to kill 99.9 percent of germs and bacteria on items. The compact germ-killing box also features 2 wireless charging spots on the top of the case to quickly recharge phones and other compatible devices. In turn, this appliance — which currently sits on my home office area's working desk — takes up minimal space, is easy to use, and gives me peace of mind that I am keeping my regularly-used electronic devices clean and charged.

Review: Eggtronic Wireless Charging Stone

Dec 20, 2020 • by Cliff Wade • 4 min read

Chargers And Cables

Home » Latest Posts » Review: Eggtronic Wireless Charging Stone

Wireless chargers are a dime a dozen these days. They vary in design from the basic disc to dual platforms to stands. My Eggtronic Wireless Charging Stone review looks at a wireless charger that follows the basic disc design but adds a bit of elegance and a lot of weight.

Specifications

Wireless Charging: Charge your smartphone without cables by simply laying your phone on the Stone surface.

High-Power Charger: Enhance your experience with fast charging up to 10W for compatible devices.

Real Marble: Compact and durable, design in real marble for an elegant look. The integrated cable ensures maximum strength.

Qi-Compatible: Works at standard speed with all Qi-enabled devices. For a full compatibility list visit the Eggtronic website.

Compatibility: Apple iPhone 11, iPhone 11 Pro, iPhone XS, iPhone XS Max, iPhone XR, iPhone SE (2nd generation), Samsung Galaxy S10, Galaxy S10e, Galaxy S10 5G, Galaxy S10 5G+.

In a very 2020 move, Fossil put out a first-to-market collection that is, essentially, COVID-proof including bags, pouches, and more treated with ViralOff, a patented antimicrobial treatment added to textiles that "shows a 99 percent reduction of many different viruses on a treated material within two hours." That includes influenza A, bird flu, norovirus, and — you guessed it — corona, so what better place to keep the fabric MacBook trackpads are some of the more responsive and smoothest trackpads on a laptop we've ever used, but there are certain tasks simply better – and less painfully – performed with the use of a mouse. The Magic Mouse 2 is worth considering if you want to give your loved one the gift of meticulous pointer movements and a pain-free wrist.

Slim and great-looking, this mouse from Apple is one of the smoothest gliding mice out there. It also does away with buttons, opting for the beautiful multi-touch surface that functions as a trackpad when it comes to performing gestures like swiping and scrolling. In a way, this mouse is the best of both worlds.

Review – Laptop Power Bank From Eggtronic

Thanks to Cassandra from Asylum PR for reaching out to me about the Eggtronic Laptop Power Bank. The unit shipped for review arrived just in time as I had just finished a Coues hunt in southern Arizona and had struggled with the power banks I had taken with me. Frankly they were junk – they took a long time to charge, and couldn't even fully charge a phone drained down to less than 15%. I ended up using my truck to charge my phone more than anything!

From Asylum: "Camping and outdoor kits used to comprise of little more than a tent, swiss army knife and the basic gear needed to do your recreation. Today's outdoor enthusiasts tend to bring along phones, cameras and GPS devices, but all these gadgets run on batteries that will need to be recharged and the Eggtronic 20,000mAh Laptop Power Bank can help keep your gadgets charged up when there isn't a wall outlet for miles. The portable charger comes equipped with two USB-A ports to recharge phones, tablets and camera as well as a 45W Power Delivery USB-C port that can quickly recharge compatible laptops. The power bank is covered in soft, water-repellent linen canvas with a soft touch frame around the side as well as a built-in LCD display that tells you the remaining battery life in one clear number, so you won't be left unexpectedly without power."

A Hanging Vase

It's proven that investing in plants for your home office can improve your mood and increase your productivity, however, sometimes people are working with limited space on their desk and on the floor surrounding their desks. With that in mind, the best solution for this would be to invest in a wall-mounted vase to hold some greenery! The greenery itself can either be real or fake, it has the same effect. Fake greenery is, of course, not going to potentially wilt and cause a drop in your mood. So this is something to consider.

Our Suggestion

Create a relaxing and homey atmosphere for your Zoom meetings by adding a wall-mounted vase to your home office. This Hanging Bud Vase has a 13.75"(H) x 4.5"(L) rectangular wooden back to add a rustic touch to your décor. The metal accents and glass vase provide the ideal holder for long-stemmed seasonal flowers, both real and faux.

A Great Storage Box

Most people prefer a clean desk when they are working, whether that is working from the office or their home. Of course, there are always a few people out there that function better when their desk is cluttered, however this is not the norm. Making sure you are working in a clean and tidy space is an essential to increasing productivity and general happiness when working from home. With that in mind, a great storage box to keep miscellaneous items such as pens, charging cables, business cards and post-it notes stores away neatly is a must.

Not only this, but a storage box can also reduce the risk of items being lost. I cannot possibly tell you how many pens, pencils and other items I have lost simply to not having a clever way to store them, and my work from home situation has been transformed no

I checked for mixing the slopes of walking around town as it's can very thin and noisy. The other side is a casual dark gray with pockets that don't zip ideal to mix it up a bit. With flattering stitching to nip you in at the waist and a nice stretch on the sleeves, this is a wonderful coat for the traveler who hates to limit their outwear options.

For the Apple Obsessed Traveler

Eggtronic power bar can charge any USB-C device making it ideal for an iPhone, Apple Watch, AirPods, and MacBook. Roughly the size of a standard remote control, this charging bar works as both a charger and a power bank, for extra battery life when you're on the go. It can charge items super quickly, either wirelessly or by plugging them into the bar. The perfect gift for travelers wary of public outlets for fear of someone stealing their sensitive information from their phone, or who simply hate the free outlet hunt. It's also especially great for families because you can charge multiple devices at once, up to 4, meaning no one will be fighting over the charger!

The Eco-Conscious Explorer

Nanobag's original bags and Nanopack are ultra-tiny, foldable, water resistant, reusable bags and backpacks. When folded up they're both smaller than a tea bag and just as lightweight. They're great for taking on a hike or to the beach. Nanobag and Nanopack are also perfect if you happen to pick up too many souvenirs while on your trip, especially now with plastic bag bans. They come in an array of pretty colors, but they'll instantly become a favorite because of their size.

THE ONLY HOLIDAY GIFT GUIDE YOU'LL NEED IN 2020

DECEMBER 6, 2020 BY LYNSINREALLIFE LEAVE A COMMENT

Whether it feels like it or not, the holidays are here. I know for me, it still feels like March (thanks pandemic/COVID-19). Luckily though, the holidays can be a happy time, full of love and cheer. And although this year definitely looks different, and many of us won't be traveling to see our family and friends, that doesn't mean we can't think of our loved ones and surprise them with a gift!

I love gift giving (is that cliché to say?). I especially love when the recipient doesn't know they're getting a gift. I put a lot of thought into what I choose for each person, and I've done plenty of research on 2020's top gifts. To save you some time, I'm sharing some of these gifts with you! Whether they're things you want to gift to loved ones, or things you want to gift yourself (hello self-care), there's something for everyone on this list. Enjoy!

Virus Zapper in a Box. Last spring, we were begging for Lysol and wiping down every surface in sight in our fight against Covid-19. Now we know that the virus is principally transmitted as an aerosol person-to-person. Still, while remote, there is still a chance that touching a recently contaminated surface and in turn touching your nose, mouth or eyes may lead to an infection, The Mundus Pro, available Dec. 15, may seem like the perfect product for the pandemically paranoid but we can pretend otherwise under questioning. First, it will recharge three phones at once. Secondly, it's a nice storage box for masks, keys, wallets, phones and other small items (that get touched a lot!). And thirdly (really the top reason) is that anything placed inside the titanium dioxide coated interior of the box will be zapped by two UV-C lamps and four UV-C LEDs operating on different wavelengths, that kill viruses like Covid-19 in a minute flat. Add germs and bacteria to the casualty list for good measure. But you don't have to tell anyone that. Even the name is discreet: "Mundus" means clean in Latin so only a priest may recognize the (murder!) box's true function and he's not allowed to tell anyone if you confess to buying it. $120. einova.com

Eggtronic Laptop Powerbank

When your crew is heading out on a long trip with phones, cameras, GPS, tablets (or whatever else the kids take on hut trips these days), it's tough to keep things charged. This portable lithium-ion power bank isn't the lightest to haul around (641g), but has ports for USB and USB-C to deliver 20,000 milliamp hours with 63W total output. It's also the size of a Kindle, and water resistant.

The Best Teacher Gifts for a Pandemic Year

Jamie Davis Smith Nov 30, 2020 · 6 min read

Plumb Paper Planner

It's that time of year when parents around the country start panicking about the perfect holiday gift for the teacher who puts up their kid all day. This year presented challenges like no other to those who engage in the noble pursuit of teaching our children. We rounded up some of our favorite products that any teacher will appreciate. Be sure to include a note recognizing how dreadful this school year has been for everyone.

Plan it Well

learning or, eventually, in the classroom. Not only does it move monitors up to eye-level for better posture but it creates more desk space underneath the lift. This is a great gift for any teacher who deserves to be more comfortable while working or who needs a little extra space on their desk - which is all of them. Or, since whiteboards have become a homeschool must for students and teachers alike, the oversized Wall is a great gift that gives plenty of extra writing space without taking up much space on a desk thanks to its slim base.

Spa at Home: As 2020 comes to a close everyone needs some self-care. This goes more so for teachers who have spent this school year teaching in ways they could not have imagined when they first entered the classroom. Manna Kadar has everything from body scrubs to bath bombs that your teacher can use to ensure they return to school in 2021 relaxed and refreshed. Another good option is Country Bathhouse that has everything from aroma therapy and seasonal soaps and scrubs with scents like cranberry woods and candy cane. Best of all, these gifts won't add to the clutter since they will be enjoyed and not stick around.

Power-Up: Teachers are ending 2020 knowing they need more power. An Eggtronic Power Bank is a great choice for teachers because it's lightweight while packing enough power for multiple phone charges or to charge a laptop. The Eggtronic displays how much power is left in the power bank so your favorite teacher never needs to guess about whether they will make through class.

Get up: With so many teachers working on their computers more than ever any teacher will appreciate a Mount-It standing desk convertor that fits on top of nearly any desk and easily moves up and down to ensure your favorite teacher is able to be productive whether they prefer to stand up or sit down. Moving into winter this gift will help keep teach alert and in shape.

Noise Canceling Headphones: Teachers need some peace and quiet! Whether they are teaching virtually and need to drown out the sounds of their own children or going into a classroom and need to unwind, they will appreciate a pair of noise cancelling headphones. These top rated headphones from Sony are under $100. Go in with a couple of friends and get your child's teacher a gift you know they will use that will last them for years.

Eggtronic Sirius 65 Watt Portable Wall Quick Charger – massive power in a pocketable package

📅 November 23, 2020 👤 Paul E King 💬 0 Comments

If you're into fast charging of your laptops and devices, foldable travel prongs, and reasonably priced high wattage chargers, the Eggtronic Sirius is a serious contender for top of the market currently. If you're just looking to charge a phone however, this is overkill. Let me repeat. O, ver, kill.

An Eco-Friendly Upgrade
There's no better way to show your bathroom some much-needed appreciation than with Carleho's Bamboo Towel Set. Not only are they 100 percent organic, eco-friendly and sustainable, they are also antimicrobial and hypoallergenic. Your holiday guests, and your skin, will thank you later. $49; carleho.com

A Luxe Throw
Alpaca wool is sought-after for its delicate texture and incredible warmth. Sourced directly from a meadow in the Peruvian Andes, the Avocado Alpaca Wool Throw combines luxury, comfort and beauty, all in one. The stunning neutral color options make this throw the perfect accent for any home. $149; avocadogreenmattress.com

Special Scents
This award-winning, U.S.-made diffuser boasts an elegant hourglass design that eliminates the need for sticks, batteries or cords. Choose from unique, high-quality scents like Bliss Me (fig, amberwood, vanilla bean and violet leaf), California Chill (Indian rose, mint, sandalwood, cannabis bud) and the new Urban Tomboy (bergamot, suede leather, pink peppercorn, tobacco leaf). $169; hyascent.com

Bright Black Candles
Based in Durham, North Carolina, this family-run label crafts all-natural candles and custom-blended scents as a way of sharing positive narratives about the Black experience. Fans like Beyonce and Michelle Obama have picked up candles inspired by cities rich in Black history, including Paris (notes of peony, gardenia and crème brûlée) and Durham (tobacco, cotton and whiskey). Starting at $28; brightblackcandles.com

Eye on the Sky
Enjoy the simple pleasures of life from your own backyard by opening a copy of The Backyard Birdwatcher's Bible, full of information, advice and art from world-renowned ornithologists. Beautifully designed and packed with info to help North American birdwatchers attract and identify birds. $33; abrambooks.com

Eternal Flame
Right now, it's extra important to transform our homes into sanctuaries: Deliv Candles—new for holiday in Cocoon, Spice and Yule—are not only beautiful objects (hand-poured in minimalist natural concrete vessels designed to be repurposed as planters for succulents or herbs), but they're made with 100 percent non-GMO soy wax, lead-free cotton wicks and biodegradable packaging. $38; delivcandleco.com

Charming Chargers
Stylish, functional and effortless, Eggtronic's Wireless Charging Stones instantly elevate any charging area in your home or workspace. Each beautifully crafted from real marble, travertine, sandstone or lava rock, ditch the messy plastic cords this season and opt instead for this museum-worthy look that gets the job done at the same time. $60; eggtronic.com

Fillup Your Cup
Give the gift of hydration with the Fillup by Fluidstance, a sturdy vessel that will keep water handy all the time. Made with BPA-free, eco-friendly materials, with a sleek design, Fillup can go on your desk, bedside table, in the kitchen, outside and more. 10 BEST PORTABLE CHARGERS FOR TRAVEL & TECH

Tech / By Keryn Means

Traveling to remote spots with a travel charger is a no brainer. You want to make sure your phone, camera, tablet and laptop stay powered up for continued use. However, when you are wandering through the back alleys in search of a mural you spotted on Instagram, you need to have your portable charger for travel ready and waiting.

I've bought a lot of travel chargers in my life, and some are definitely better than others. While I used to love my Ventev, I'm all in on my MyCharger these days for everyday use. But there are a few others I pack up to make sure I'm never without power, whether I'm hiking through Petra in Jordan, or road tripping with the kids to Medora, North Dakota.

2. Einova Wireless Charging Stones

Promising Review: "When I learned of this product I knew I had to have one (or more). I really like unique, products, something I can put on my desk that is useful but that some one entering my office will look at and comment on. Ding, this does the trick. It's very attractive, and natural looking, holes in the stone, different colors in the rock. Even better it charges my phone fast. And the cord is very well made, it's even attractive, much nicer than white or black plastic. The bottom is covered in a nice felt that won't scratch my desk, and it's got enough heft to stay where it's put. I could not be happier with my new acquisition." — Tcubed

Editor's Thoughts: The Einova charging stones allows you to powerup in style, with its marble base pad. Compatible with all Qi-enabled devices the Einova stone has fast-charging up to 10W. This power bank and Nite Ize Waterproof zip pouch will be in the top of my backpack on my next trip.

Laptop Power Bank ($69.99) is a burly 20,000mAh portable charger from Eggtronic, equipped with two USB-A ports and a 45W Power Delivery USB-C port that can recharge compatible laptops. It has a pleasantly soft, water-repellent linen canvas covering and a built-in LCD display for remaining battery life. Last summer, I experimented with solar chargers for my devices and they weren't as reliable as I'd hoped. So 20,000mAh should do the trick. This device will be sitting in the top pocket of my backpack next summer (inside this Nite Ize Waterproof Pocket).

It would be a profound understatement to say that 2020 has been a tumultuous and chaotic year. For all too many, it has been downright devastating. Despite the doldrums, disappointments and heartache, people far and wide are endeavoring to embrace the spirit of the holiday season and find joy where they can. This includes bestowing thoughtful and heartfelt gifts on friends, family, colleagues and others of care and concern in our sphere.

With this, many have asked for my recommendations on travel-friendly holiday gift ideas that can make our lives more enjoyable and comfortable—whether cautiously out-and-about this year or well into the next as normalcy hopefully resumes. Here are some of my favorite travel gift-worthy finds of the year across various categories, assuring there is something for everyone.

Eggtronic laptop power bank for your next adventure

November 17, 2020 / Amy / No Comments

None of us are flying as much as we might like these days, whether for pleasure or for work, but if you're like me, you're still itching to get away every once in a while. Maybe you're working from home, so you can work from anywhere, or maybe you have online remote learners at home, sucking up all the battery power of your devices.

Enter Eggtronic's laptop power bank, ready to deliver back up power to multiple devices. This 20,000mAh backup battery offers 63W total output over three ports (45W USB-C PD, 18W USB-A Quick Charge 3.0, 5W USB-A 2.4A), so it can charge three devices simultaneously.

I was able to charge my MacBook Air from the comfort of our Westfalia camper van while working from the road, and my partner could simultaneously charge her phone. The two high power fast-charge ports deliver power at 2x the average speed.

Wondering what devices you can charge? The Eggtronic power bank has universal USB-C/USB-A compatibility. Automatic device detection ensures your devices will be charged safely, too. The power bank is super slim and portable, easily fitting into my day bag, backpack, or laptop sleeve. It's wrapped in a soft waterproof linen canvas, which just gives it a very finished, non-technical look.

Enormous, All-in-One Charger Has Plenty of Tricks

One charger to rule them all

by Evan Killham Published November 11, 2020 01:32PM EST

Key Takeaways

- Charges up to four devices simultaneously, both wirelessly and with cables.
- Works as a portable power bank.
- Starts to get temperamental at lower charge levels.

The RAVPower Fast Wireless Charger lets you get a taste of wireless charging without spending as much as you would getting a MagSafe charger. And before you ask, no, the RAVPower charger can't take advantage of the magnets on the iPhone 12. It's a regular wireless charger without MagSafe support. That doesn't mean it's bad, though. Especially for the price, you'll get a fast wireless charger for just $23. The best part is that it comes with its own QC 3.0 wall adapter and cable.

9 Eggtronic 65W USB-C Portable Charger

The Eggtronic 65W USB-C Portable Charger is a different type of charger in many ways. For starters, this charger is one of the few that actually comes with a cable in the box. Sadly, that seems to be rare nowadays. The other big change with this charger is the design. You can see the Eggtronic Charger has a sleek, speckled design that fits right in your pocket. It also has a foldable plug so it's easier to carry around. Finally, this charger is eco-friendly. The Eggtronic Charger helps you charge your devices in the most effective way possible to help the environment and help you save money as well.

GIFT IDEAS FOR THOSE WORKING-FROM-HOME OR VIRTUAL LEARNING

Be the favorite gift giver with one of these gift ideas for those working-from-home or virtual learning this year. This post is sponsored by Eggtronic, but all opinions are my own.

Holiday gatherings may be virtual this year, and maybe gifts should go along with the virtual theme, too! If someone on your gift-giving list is working-from-home this year or virtual learning, now is a great time to gift them something that they can definitely use for their working or learning endeavors.

One of my biggest fears for winter working-from-home and virtual learning is that the power will go out due to a snowstorm. When our power goes out, it tends to stay out for a few days. My fear actually came true just a week ago when we lost power for five days due to an odd fall tropical storm. This definitely does not combine well with working-from-home or virtual learning!

Foggy Glasses with your COVID Mask? Here is a Solution

Many of us are trying to take precautions by wearing masks and gloves when we go out in public, but that still leaves our eyes exposed. Even if we're wearing gloves, it's still not best to use hands and dirty eyeglass cloths to clean our fogged up glasses (and avoid mask blindness).

The FogBlock prevents fogged up glasses in the first place, meaning you don't have to worry about wiping them with your hands or gloves. The FogBlock is just one of many products KeySmart has created in the last several months to help protect us from the virus.

What's on our desk? Hardware Editor edition

Yes, I use QR codes to manage review inventory, and no, I'm not ashamed.

by Joe Rice-Jones October 26, 2020

Half a year ago when we realized work from home was going to be the norm, I'm not sure we thought it was going to still be the norm going into the end of the year. Commuting is down to a bare minimum now even for those office workers that have started to trickle back into their office spaces, and sofas, bedrooms, and dining rooms have all been co-opted into working spaces.

The team here at KnowTechie were already working remotely before this new change, but not necessarily from home as one of our editors preferred to use a WeWork style communal working space to keep on

Laptop Power Bank

The more and more we spend on the road, the more we end up in remote locations and need to get work done. Especially during the pandemic, the idea of sitting down to work in a coffee shop for several hours to take advantage of free Wifi is not really appealing.

That's why Grant really loves this Laptop Power Bank the folks from Eggtronic sent us. It allows us to work from pretty much anywhere, regardless of having an outlet to power our devices.

REASONS TO BUY

- + Compatible with a variety of laptops
- + Thin and relatively lightweight

REASONS TO AVOID

- Only 1.5 charges for laptops

The Eggtronic Laptop Power Bank keeps things simple, compact and reliable, which is really all you want from a laptop power bank you want to travel with. At 6.75 x 4 x 0.63 inches and 0.498kg, it's thin and relatively lightweight. Combine that with its 74Wh power, and you've got a device that not only keeps things portable for jet-setting creatives and remote working professionals but is TSA-approved as well. It even has an easy-to-read LCD display to let you know just how much juice it has left.

More importantly, unlike other so-called laptop chargers out there that fail to work at times, this one's incredibly reliable, capable of charging your laptop every single time. And, that's while charging your other portables as well with its 3-port selection. It may only have the standard 20,000mAh capacity, but that's a full laptop charge and a half, definitely more than enough to last you while you're in between outlets. Best yet, it's under $100, cheaper than most of the offerings on this list.

You get 12W charging when using a USB-A Lightning adapter with your iPhone 12, as well as the full 20W fast-charging when using USB-C. And with a 60W max output, you won't need to carry around your bulky MacBook Pro adapter anymore.

Why we love it: The Choetech 100W charger is one of the largest we tested, but at a little more than 2.5 inches around it's still significantly smaller than the 96W power adapter Apple supplies with the 16-inch MacBook Pro. And you get an extra USB-C port with 45W to each device when used together. At 3.5 ounces, it's actually lighter than some of the 60W chargers on this list too, so you're getting a whole lot of juice without adding much bulk or weight to your bag.

I was constantly moving phone chargers around the apartment, until I got this heavy duty power bank.

It can wirelessly and quickly charge up to 4 Apple devices – all simultaneously! So you can power your phone, airpods, apple watch and Mac all in one go.

I find it works really well as a home desk accessory, where you might not want to add yet another cable (and every outlet is already occupied).

Portable Eggtronic battery bank holds a larger charge than most laptops

This compact $89 USD power bank can hold a respectable 63 Wh charge to be perfect for hikes or camping trips with multiple people. Recharging the bank itself, however, is almost three times slower than on most laptops.

Allen Ngo, 09/18/2020 Accessory Laptop Smartphone Tablet

While smaller personal power banks may be sufficient for long days of constant smartphone or tablet use, you're probably going to want something bigger for extended trips with family members or friends. The Eggtronic Power Bank fits that niche with its relatively large 63 Wh (20000 mAh) capacity designed to recharge multiple devices simultaneously.

The manufacturer sent us a unit to test and we're definitely satisfied about the advertised capacity and small 1.6 cm-thick form factor. At 63 Wh, the bank has enough to charge our Asus ZenBook 13 from empty to full and still have about 20 percent left for other items. Most Ultrabooks or subnotebooks have integrated batteries in the 40 Wh to 70 Wh range.

THE POWERFUL CHARGER EVERYONE SHOULD BE TRAVELING WITH

If you're like me, you've struggled to find a reliable charger that works when you really need it to. Over the years, I've tried many. I've brought multiple chargers with me on vacation, hoping that would be enough to get me through the day.

I've found one that works for me in the Parks. But, many end up being either too slow to charge my devices in the heat, or they overheat in my backpack and don't end up charging my phone at all. And nothing I've tried has been strong enough to keep up with my laptop.

But, thanks to Eggtronic, that will no longer be the case. Since they've sent me this amazing charger, I've put this thing through the test this past week. And I was nothing short of impressed with its performance.

Mundus, Latin for clean, features two powerful UV-C lamps as well as four UV-C LEDs that emit different wavelengths. The UV-C light emitted by the LEDs is of a shorter wavelength than the lamps. By using both the UV-C lamps and LEDs, Mundus targets a much broader spectrum of microbes than conventional UV-C disinfectors since different viruses and bacteria are sensitive to different UV-C wavelengths.

KEEP YOUR ELECTRONICS CHARGED WHILE ON-THE-GO WITH THE EGGTRONIC LAPTOP POWER BANK

Do you ever think about what your life would be like without any electronic devices? I am quite certain most if us would be lost! There is a not a day that I'm not using my phone, laptop or tablet. They have become a such a big part of daily life whether it's for work, keeping up with friends on social media or simply listening to music or playing a game to relax. I recall recently being at our local precinct to vote in the primary election. We had no idea that we were going to be standing in line for 4.5 hours. Guess who had their phones on only a half charge? It's a horrible feeling when you watch the phone battery bar go in the red, and slowly deplete.

With all of us being super dependent on our electronics, especially with more people working from home and kids doing virtual school, we have to stay charged at all times. We were so happy to receive a laptop power bank from Eggtronic to try out. I don't even want to discuss how many devices we have in our home. There are times when we work outside on the back porch, and having a portable charger comes in handy. The package included: Laptop Power Bank, USB-C to USB-C cable (3ft), USB-C to USB-A adapter tip, user manual. It offers Universal compatibility with all USB-C and USB devices.

It lets you recharge up to three devices simultaneously through its three ports: 45W USB-C Power Delivery, USB Quick Charge and standard USB 2.1A. The generous 20,000mAh battery capacity equals 4-8 charges for your smartphone, 3-5 charges for your tablet or 1.5 charges for your laptop.

The two high-power fast charge ports (USB-C PD and USB Quick Charge) save you valuable time. Looking to top up your Macbook or other USB-C laptop? The 45W USB-C Power Delivery output fast charges it. Stylish and practically designed with soft water-repellent canvas and an easy-to-read LCD display.

LIFE & STYLE

Halloween Edition

By Griffin Miller

October...when trees reveal colorful coifs; jackets replace tank tops; apple cider and its hard cider cousin are the quaffs du jour; and Halloween, where we indulge our wildest sweet tooth and costume fantasies. As for the holiday's supernatural rep, I say let's ramp up the vamp this year with blood red delights and wicked brews—plus a handful of macabre-free autumnal splurges. Welcome, children of the night!

FINGERTIPS FOR THE WITCHING HOUR

The jaded mantra in the musical Chicago is “Razzle Dazzle ‘Em,” and for the glam at heart (myself included), tis the season to get your finger freak on via Nailset, home to the hottest, sexiest, acrylic press on nails ever. With their “ready-to-ship” and handmade collections, these specialty sets of 24 run the gamut from conservative to wow! For October 31st, I recommend either the dangerously keen Stiletto or aptly named Coffin styles, but since Nailset’s roster of selections is staggering, do press on to their website, as I’ve only begun to scratch the surface.
Info: thenailset.com.

ROCK MY WORLD

In my indoor pandemic shadowland, phone chargers 101 have become a bête noir of annoyance—and I suspect I’m not alone. Craving sleek, functional, and cord-free, I finally had my wishes granted with an Eggtronic Wireless Charging Stone. Round and winningly attractive, these high power babies rock (pun intended) all Qi-enabled devices and come in a number of mega-cool options, from black or white marble to lava stone (the latter currently gracing my desk). What can I say, except my iPhone has never looked happier! Info: Eggtronic.com.

COME SIP A SPELL

Just saying the word “chocolate” may conjure a world of Willy Wonka’s Scrumdiddlyumptious candy bars, but the over-21 set may want to veer away from the oompa loompas and take a sip on the wild side with chocolate-infused 8-Ball Whiskey. Not likely to end up in any trick-or-treater’s goodie bag, this delectable, award-winning blend of aged bourbon and exotic all-natural ingredients is the perfect addition to any adult Halloween party, masked, Zoomed, or otherwise. After sampling 8-Ball au naturel, I moved on to the ultimate Irish Coffee. I’m hooked, even though it’s not officially a Halloween tradition... yet!).

ROSE IS A ROSE IS A ROSE

Here’s to celebrating the marriage of two femme fatale items with happily-ever-after in their future. The duo, dubbed Roses are Red: Perfume & Lipstick Essentials by collaborators Sue Phillips (Sue Phillips House of Fragrance) and Heather Fink (The Sexiest Beauty) pair Sue’s bewitching Rose Floral Perfume with Heather’s killer Red Lipstick. Seductively presented in velvet and satin pouches, scent and lipstick have what it takes to upgrade the vixen quotient on All Hallows’ Eve. After all, what’s life without a little rose rapture and scarlet sorcery?

AUTUMN GEAR

1. Eggtronic | Power Bar $149.99

This wireless power bank can charge up to four Apple devices simultaneously including an Apple Watch thanks to a dedicated charger as well as two 7.5W Qi Apple Fast Wireless charging spots for an iPhone and AirPods (or two Qi-compatible smartphones) and a 30W USB-C outlet for a MacBook Air, MacBook Pro, iPad Pro (or any other USB-Type C device).

2. GeoKey $26.99

With more than 18 tool functions on your key ring, the GeoKey is a really convenient multitool. From tools many people use every day, like wrenches, screwdrivers and the bottle opener, to more interesting tools like the file, spike key, and scoring tip, it is a great tool for adventuring around Colorado.

3. Maloja | Multipart Rain Jacket $395

Made with GORE-TEX PacLite technology (read: packable!) the Urmolina M handheld is fully waterproof, windproof and breathable as well as being lightweight. It also has an adjustable hood with a solid peak, a zipable chest pocket, two front pockets with invisible zips, adjustable cuffs with Velcro fasteners, an adjustable waistband and a reflective print.

4. Hydro Flask | Insulated Food Jar $34.94 & up

These handy insulated food jars are able to keep food hot or cold for hours. Made from stainless steel, which guarantees that flavors of whatever you put in there don't linger, they also have leak-proof lids. We love the autumn appropriate colors.

5. Machine for Freedom | Endurance Jersey $178

A classic short-sleeve endurance jersey, the Pabla shirt has a very technical fit. High-performance fabric wicks moisture away but it is breathable and feels good on your skin. It also has UPF 50+ built in, and in addition to the regular three back pockets, the jersey also has a moisture-resistant zippered side pocket.

6. Primus | Campfire Cutting Set $ 69.95

A simple two-piece set made up of a razor sharp knife (with a 5.9" blade) and an oak cutting board (5.9" x 11" x 1.7"). The knife has an oak handle and the blade is made from high-grade full tang stainless steel. The set comes in a durable polyurethane-coated roll.

7. Tarpestry Rugged Outdoor Blanket $149 and up

A portmanteau of tarp and tapestry, Tarpestry was created by adventurers and festival goers who wanted a soft yet durable outdoor blanket. With rings on each corner so they can be staked down, they are UV- and water-resistant and have a corner Velcro pocket for easy storage.

8. OSI | Glacier Stainless 1L Vacuum Bottle $44.95

The vacuum nature of the Glacier bottle means it can keep contents hot or cold for up to 30 hours. The stainless steel offers both purity and durability while a recess on the outside helps you grip the bottle in wet conditions.

9. Sena | R1 EVO helmet $159

Bringing technology to helmets, the Sena R1 EVO has, among other features, Mesh Intercom which allows you to communicate with other R1 EVO users within a half-mile. It also has nine channels so you can switch between individuals or groups. It also has voice command controls, and a built-in taillight, microphone, speakers, and it's Bluetooth enabled.

10. Po Campo | Kings HandiBag Bag 2 $49.99

Po Campo has introduced a reflective feature to its line of sustainable, gender-neutral commute bags. We love being able to zip around town as the days get shorter knowing that we are more visible than ever. The HandiBag bag features exterior pockets which are great for quickly accessing your phone.

11. HydraPak | RECON $15 and up

The first bottle made from 50 percent certified recycled content in both cap and bottle, HydraPak claims the bottle is virtually indestructible. The RECON is dishwasher safe and available in two sizes - 750ml and one liter.

12. Orvis | Clearwater 2-Weight 10' Fly Rod $336

Part of a collection of rods that were designed specifically for anglers who fish primarily in freshwater, the rod comes in several weights which will cover any freshwater fishing scenario. Also available in a variety of lengths, they were designed to balance strength and precision, allowing anglers to cast heavy streamers or tiny dry flies.

13. Danner | Logger 917 GTX $230

Inspired by Danner's original caulked logging boots, the Logger 917 GTX were designed with durability in mind. They have a GORE-TEX waterproof liner and a Vibram midsole, but are still lightweight and comfortable.

14. Vermont Glove | Choppers Mitt $80

Made from goat leather, these mittens are rugged yet supple and soft. The mitten version keeps fingers nice and toasty while double-stitched reinforcement in heavy-wear areas ensures the gloves last longer, meaning enough time to give them a personalized patina.

15. Gear Lab | Malk Paddle $108

The first thing you'll notice about the Malk is how sleek it looks from a design perspective. A Greenland-style paddle (originally used by Inuit paddlers of Greenland) the Malk has replaceable tips and the shaft is made from fiberglass or carbon fiber and is lightweight and durable. We've even used it for paddleboarding.

Eggtronic Review: Laptop Power Bank, Wireless Charging Stone, and Wireless Power Popper

September 25, 2020 By Techno_Mark — Leave a Comment

It hasn't been too long since we have reviewed a decent Eggtronic product, with the last being the Wireless Power Bar. I encountered them at CES 2020 in what seems like a world ago, back when we could all get together at conventions, and they have a lot of unique power options. We are going to review three products with the Laptop Power Bank, Wireless Charging Stone, and the Wireless Power Popper.

Review: Power Bar Wireless Charging Bank by Eggtronic

By Todd Bernhard | Wed, 09/16/2020

Eggtronic always makes stylish devices and the Power Bar \(\$149.99\) the company sent me to try is no exception. The Power Bar is a 10,000 mAh battery pack in a rounded rectangular brick with a glossy white exterior that looks a lot like an early iPod or the actual packaging that enclosed my original Apple Watch. Aside from the glossy white surface, the only markings are the Eggtronic logo and two "Qi" logos to indicate the two fast charging 7.5-watt wireless pads that are a highlight of this device. These can be used for iPhones, Android phones, or AirPods that support Qi. Like most portable Qi chargers, you have to push a button to activate it, otherwise it would be drawing a small amount of power all the time, eventually running out.

Quick-Charging Power Banks and Adaptors

There's nothing that puts a damper on your travel quite like a kid device that's gone dead. Plan for this inevitability by bringing along a high-power charging bank. Here are a few of our favorites:

- Eggtronic Laptop Power Bank: This 20,000mAh power bank is great to keep charged up in your car for road trips as it can help keep your gadgets charged up when there isn't a wall outlet for miles. The portable charger comes equipped with two USB-A ports to recharge phones and tablets as well as a 45W Power Delivery USB-C port that can quickly recharge compatible laptops. The LCD display that tells you the remaining battery life in one clear number, so you won't be left unexpectedly without power. Get yours here, $89.90.
- AUKEY 100W 2A+2C Power Adapter: Make it easy on yourself and pack this GaNFast charger that is compatible with all your devices and can charge up to four devices at once. Gallium Nitride chips in GaNFast chargers are more efficient than silicon, with the ability to charge devices 3 times faster while reducing charger size and weight by half so your bags and walls are no longer overwhelmed with giant charging bricks. Get yours here, $56.99. Find other GaN chargers here.

Eggtronic Laptop Power Bank is a Jolly Good Egg

With its 20,000 mAh capacity and 63 W capability, this bodacious beauty boasts three output ports that can charge three devices simultaneously.

August 31, 2020 9 comments

These days, when we hear the term “power bank,” we all know that we’re talking about a portable battery device that is typically charged using a USB power supply and that can supply power from its built-in battery via a USB port.

I’m not sure when these little rascals first hit the scene, although I’ve heard that a rudimentary version was displayed at the Consumer Electronics Show (CES) in 2001. I think it took a few years after that before they began to impinge on the mainstream consciousness.

Modern versions of these little scamps, of course, boast sophisticated electronic control systems that allow them to charge themselves as quickly as possible, and subsequently charge other devices as rapidly as possible, without suffering from any undesirable effects, like overheating and catching fire, for example.

I only vaguely remember when I first saw one of these little ragamuffins with my own eyes. I think it was at an Embedded Systems Conference (ESC) circa 2008. Since then, of course, the power bank market has exploded (in a good way).

Sometime around 2010, when I was doing a lot of travelling, I decided to invest in a power bank of my own — something I could use to charge my iPhone and iPad when I was on the road. Luckily for its creators, I can’t remember who made this device. I do recall that they didn’t charge me very much. In return, they provided me with a unit that didn’t charge my iThings very well (LOL).

Chomps, high-quality meat sticks that put Slim Jims to shame. Its beef and venison are 100 percent grass fed, the turkey is free range and all proteins are hormone free. The taste is unforgettable. Chomps comes in eight varieties—we love the Italian-style and sea salt beef, and for a kick, the cranberry-habanero beef. <https://chomps.com/Nuts> are always a great, long-lasting snack, and you've never had them the way you pick up a bag of Sahale Snacks. Taste a bit of the exotic in banana-rum pecans, Thai cashews and pomegranate pistachios. Trail mix and coconut snack mix is also available. <https://www.sahalesnacks.com/products>

5. Portable Shower Products

Get rid of plastic bottle waste and take your hair cleansing regimen portable with Bottle None. Created by two sisters from British Columbia, Bottle None's shampoos and conditioners come as solid disks and take up less space in the suitcase or your shower. Store them on a soap dish, or in the convenient accompanying travel case that allows them to air dry and last longer. Bottle None is available for all hair types and is good for 60-plus washes. <https://bottlenone.com/> If you're looking for an all-in-one product, Bravo Sierra's Hair & Body Solid Cleansing Bar lathers you from head to toe with its creamy coconut-based formula. Even its minimal packaging is biodegradable. It's available in unscented and scented versions—those who love musk should opt for the scented version. <https://www.bravosierra.com/products>

6. An Electronics Charger

Make sure all of your electronics are full of juice when you're on the go. The Laptop Power Bank has two USB-A ports to recharge phones and tablets and a 45W Power Delivery

USB-C port that can quickly recharge laptops. An LCD display clearly shows the remaining battery life, so you won't unexpectedly be left without power. The user-friendly smart

Eggtronic Wireless Power Bar

August 19, 2020

Currently available: $149.99 Visit their site to learn more

Power it all on the go! The folks at Eggtronic have you covered with their Wireless Power Bar. If you're an Apple user, you can charge your phone and wireless headphones on the two 7.5 watt Apple MFI-certified Qi wireless charging spots and charge your watch on the dedicated Apple Watch 5 watt charging spot. If Apple isn't your thing, Android devices can be charged as well. But wait, besides the three wireless charging spots, there's also a 30 watt USB-C port that is powerful enough to charge your laptop (or any USB-C device)! Included in the comprehensive kit is: the Power Bar, a 3-foot USB-C to USB-C cable, a 3-foot USB-C to Lightning cable, and a USB-C to USB-A adapter tip. The sleek design of this portable 10,000mAh battery pack keeps you charged (and quickly!) on your travels, and the Power Bar can be recharged fully in less than 2 hours. Take to the road and charge all your devices with the Eggtronic Wireless Power Bar!

La carga inalámbrica de smartphones no es nueva, ya desde hace rato que los cargadores de este tipo están entre nosotros y a medida que pasa el tiempo van siendo un elemento más de nuestras vidas.

Hasta hace un par de años atrás nos encontrábamos con que la mayoría de los ofrecimientos, hablando del estilo, eran cargadores simples, la mayoría de color negro, fabricados con plástico y que normalmente no ayudaban en lo que respecta a la decoración de un ambiente.

Normalmente esos cargadores inalámbricos de los primeros años estaban relegados a descansar en un rincón sobre algún mueble, sin que se viera demasiado o sobre el escritorio de la oficina. Pero hoy en día esto ha cambiado y tenemos cargadores inalámbricos para móviles de distintos materiales, colores y estilos para cualquier ocasión y ambiente.

Wirelessly charge your phone on an elegant stone slab that's 35% off

These stones are so gorgeous that I imagine this is how rich people charge their phones.

The Eggtronic Wireless Charging Stone isn't your run-of-the-mill Qi-compatible wireless charger. Finished in real marble, it looks genuinely stunning. In fact, it's too bad that a mundane USB cable unavoidably snakes out from underneath, because it's otherwise a work of art. The stones retail for $70, but right now you can get one for 35% off. It's been a long time coming, but we've finally reached the point where the best smart home devices can finally connect to one another, synchronize with one another and generally behave in a manner that really feels effortless and automated. And this is true even when these smart home devices come from different brands.

This is thanks to the fact that the tech industry has made an effort to support standardized the main smart home platforms: Google Assistant, Amazon Alexa and to a lesser extent, Apple HomeKit.

If you're a household with a lot of Apple or Android devices, chances are that you have all kinds of cables to recharge them. The Eggtronic Power Bar is an all-in-one wireless charger that eliminates some of the clutter when you're away from home.

As a wireless device, the charging station can be conveniently brought with you wherever you need a power bank. It will fit comfortably in a laptop bag or luggage. If you're desperate for portability, it should even fit in an oversized pocket in a pair of cargo shorts or a baggy winter coat.

What's included?

The device comes with two wireless Qi charging spots, a pop-up charging spot for an Apple Watch, and a 30-watt USB-C charging port. It includes a three-foot USB-C to USB-C cable, a three-foot USB-C to Lightning cable, and a USB-C to USB-A adapter.

- ITALIAN CHARGING STONE: These Charging Stones work perfectly with your natural summer decor. I added this piece of natural art with the Wireless Charging Stones from Eggtronic to my nightstand. You can't tell that it's a wireless charger because it looks like a piece of art/stone. I love that! These powerful, elegant chargers are designed in Italy and made from real stone and marble. They can be used to quickly recharge any Qi-enabled device, like the new iPhone and Samsung phones, by simply setting it on the stone surface. Every Wireless Charging Stone is unique due to the natural swirls and patterns found on the stone and are available in light colors like white marble and travertine stone.

USB-C Wireless Power Bank Review

June 5, 2020 review geeknews

The Eggtronic USB-C Wireless Power Bank Power Bar is a very innovative power brick. That allows you wirelessly charge your iPhone your Apple Watch and your AirPods at the same time. But that is not all, you can charge all your Apple devices to include your MacBook Air or MacBook Pro. Delivering unparalleled power 7.5 watts to your iPhone, 5 watts to your Apple Watch, and 30W USB-C to your Macbook or any device that has a USB-C device.

The image above paints a powerful charging solution with a 10,000 mAh battery that will deliver multiple charges to your mobile phone or Apple watch. I have been using this wireless power bar here in my office in the studio area where it is not convenient to have charging cables.

Eggtronic Sirus 65W Universal Laptop Charger Review

Posted by Nathan Kirsch | Tue, Jun 16, 2020 - 9:18 AM

Are you looking for a universal USB-C charger that is USB-IF certified and powerful enough to charge laptops, smartphones, tablets, and pretty much any device that you can connect it to? Today, Legit Reviews will be taking a look at the Eggtronic Sirius 65W universal laptop charger. This Italian designed USB-C laptop power adapter is 93% energy efficient and features a flush-to-the-wall body design to save space.

If your old laptop power adapter is 65 Watts or less, the Sirius is a quick and easy way to replace the old bulky and heavy model that might have come with your device. The flush design might also be appealing to some as far to many power adapters stick far out from the wall. This ends up causing them to get bumped and come loose from the wall. Sirius solves this issue by having a low profile design that doesn't come off the wall even if it is bumped.

All this can be yours as long as you are okay with white and black as the only color options. The white version (PAWH65) runs $64.99 shipped and the black version (PABK65) runs a touch higher at $68.99 shipped. There is no difference between the two other than color, so if you are frugal and wanting to save some coin you now know which color to get!

You won't go crazy trying to find your stuff if it's all charging on the same device. Eggtronic

When it comes to our gadgets, we tend to be creatures of habit. Or maybe “creatures of brand” is a better way to put it. If you're an Apple person, chances are you have an iPhone, Apple Watch, AirPods and iPad, and those are all more than likely the same contents of your travel bag. So, when it comes to charging all those devices, you can certainly bring multiple chargers and lightning cables, or you can minimize your clutter while maximizing your space with a clever charger like the Eggtronic Power Bar.

MICHAELANGELO WOULD HAVE LOVED THIS PHONE CHARGER

I must admit, I am a lover of all things Italian...from cuisine to clothing to home décor.

I probably speak for many of us who are really tired of having black plastic devices litter our desks, with no regard for aesthetics and design. That's why my eyes lit up when I learned about Eggtronic's wireless charging stones, made out of handcrafted Italian marble. The high-powered chargers work with all Qi-enabled devices and provide fast charging up to 10W for compatible devices.

4. Eggtronic's Power Bar (Click image to purchase, if desired)

When you are trying to keep up with the latest technology, it can be overwhelming to juggle so many different devices, let alone all their different charging ports and charging necessities. This Power Bar is a wireless power bank that can charge up to four Apple devices at the same time: an iPhone, AirPods, an Apple Watch, and a MacBook. No matter what Apple product your father may have, this guarantees that he can charge it quickly, without any hassle.

EGGTRONIC POWER BAR USB-C WIRELESS POWER BANK REVIEW

ONE POWER BANK TO RULE THEM ALL.

How many devices do you use throughout the course of a day? Two...three...more? At the end of that day, do you find yourself scrambling to plug your phone and tablet into charging devices? What if you could charge all your devices from one power bank? This is what the Power Bar attempts to do by providing a 3-in-1 multi-device charging dock.

DETAILS

The Power Bar is a USB-C Wireless Power Bank with Apple Watch Charger built-in. There are multiple types of chargers within the Power Bar including a wireless power bank that has two wireless charging spots, an Apple Watch charger, and a USB-C charger. The USB-C power delivery port provides 30W of output power to connected devices. The Power Bar features a

Eggtronic's Power Bar Charges All Your Apple Devices

Whether at home or on the go, juggling multiple chargers for a MacBook, iPhone, iPad, and Apple Watch is a hassle. It's better to have one charger for multiple devices. This often takes the form of a power bank—basically a large portable battery with ports for plugging in Apple gear. And if that power bank is also a wireless charging pad, so much the better!

I've been testing one such multi-device charger, Eggtronic's new Power Bar, which supports all your Apple mobile gear. The white brick works as a power bank to charge a MacBook or iPad via a power cord. It doubles as a wireless Qi charging station with two spots for iPhones or Qi-ready AirPods battery cases. Finally, it provides a spot to charge an Apple Watch.

The Power Bar aims high but, at a steep $150, it falls a bit short with missing features and awkward aspects. I generally like it, though.

Review: Eggtronic's Wireless iPhone Chargers Are Made to Last

By Todd Bernhard | Fri, 05/22/2020

In this era of cheap, plastic disposable gadgets, it was nice to see the Wireless Charging Stone ($69.90) Eggtronic sent me to review. This is a serious, made-to-last Qi charger. Sure there are lots of wireless iPhone chargers to choose from, but only Eggtronic offers ones made out of actual stone: marble, travertine, and lava.

5 Products to Help You Sleep When You're Anxious

From a chic weighted blanket to the perfectly crafted pillow, these bedroom additions could go a long way in helping you maintain healthy sleeping patterns

By Nick Mafi
May 8, 2020

If you're like me right now, falling asleep at night has been an issue. (Seriously, I am really struggling.) And seeing how we're currently in the middle of a virus-induced global pandemic, it's all the more frustrating that sleep is stubbornly susceptible to the events impacting our psyches every day. It's no secret that anxiety does for sleep what rain does to a parade—plans quickly become dashed due to external factors. While some view little sleep as a virtue, associating it with the industriousness of CEOs and world leaders, it's been scientifically proven that getting healthy amounts of sleep (seven to eight hours) improves the chances of a longer life, all other factors excluded. In the troubling and uncertain times we are living through, sleep has perhaps never been more important. We're hoping these five products help you achieve those recommended seven to eight hours of necessary sleep.

Wireless Charging Stones by Eggtronic

Everyone (myself included) is guilty of reaching for the stimulation of a smartphone when sleep cannot be found. And since our phones are typically charging on the nightstand next to our beds, the convenience of grabbing for them becomes too hard to pass up. But the blue glow from our phones goes a long way in exacerbating the problem. Enter the technology of Eggtronic, a new charging method that converts four options of stone (marble black, marble white, travertine, and lava) into cell phone chargers that can be placed away from your bed. Best of all is that the sleek design means that it is not an eyesore during the waking hours of the day. eggtronic.com

Gadgets: An elegant phone charger

GREGG ELLMAN TRIBUNE NEWS SERVICE
FEBRUARY 24, 2021 02:00 AM,

Is it really possible to call a wireless phone charger elegant, or attractive or a piece of art? Well, some of that might be a stretch but after seeing Einova by Eggtronic's marble wireless phone charger, you'll know what I mean.

The 4.65-inch rounded charger can produce 5W, 7.5W and up to 10W of fast charging for capable devices, but what makes this a winner is its appearance. It's available in five genuine marble colors, and each has a unique cut, finish and marble pattern.

According to Einova, the chargers were designed in Italy and are rendered in 100 percent solid genuine marble or stone with artisanal quality and meticulous attention to detail.

As for the performance, there's not a lot to say besides it worked. There are some wireless chargers I've tested that make you find the exact spot to lay it down and charge. But with the piece of marble, as long my iPhone 12Pro was somewhat centered, the charging started.

Attached to the 20-ounce stone is a high quality and durable braided 3-foot USB cable for powering the Qi-Certified charger. A USB wall charger is included. The bottom is lined with a soft fabric to ensure it won't scratch any surface.

The marble wireless charger ($49.99) is available in white marble, black marble, lava, sandstone and travertine.

Another top of the line charging device from Einova is the USB-C ultra fast laptop power back.

Charging a smartphone on the go isn't difficult these days but this 20,000 mAh piece of power has 63 watts of total output, which adds up to charging a smartphone 4 to 8 times, 3 to 5 charges for a tablet, or one and a half charges for most laptops.

The three outputs include a 45W USB-C, an 18W USB-A Quick Charge 3.0 and one 5W USB-A 2.4A.

Cosmetically, the slim power bank is covered in a soft waterproof linen canvas and an LCD display (0 is empty, 100 is fully charged) shows the remaining battery power before it needs an AC charge.

It's easy to say every house should have this or that gadget, and often it's accurate. But there's no doubt every home can use the new Firewalla Gold multi-gigabit cyber security firewall and router.

A representative from Firewalla stated it well: Typical home routers are great for spreading Wi-Fi signals to all corners of your house but they aren't great to keep cyber criminals away. In a

TEKNION MESH-BACK CHAIR IS UP TO THE TASK

This has been a year like no other, and it certainly has changed not just the way that we work, but the way our children are educated.

Around Mesh-Back Task Chair

Our homes had to make a quick transition from the place where we relax and unwind to our office space and classrooms. As weeks have turned into months, we've had to readjust our makeshift areas into proper workspaces. High on the priority list is seating.

In search of a supportive and comfortable chair, we selected the Around Mesh-Back Task Chair from Teknion. Designed by Justus Kolberg with an array of cleverly integrated innovative functions, the Around Chair is airy in look and feel and achieves high performance in comfort and support. A big plus is that it adapts easily to users of various sizes.

Attractive and sleek, the wrapped back uses a cushioned mesh textile for breathability and lumbar support, and it has a lumbar element that adjusts 4" in height for accurate positioning. The flexaround seat pan offers comfort, support, and ventilation. Its depth can adjust 3 7/8" to promote proper contact with the chair back and reduce knee pressure. The chair itself has a height adjustment range of 4".

Using a weight-balancing synchro-tilt mechanism, the Around Mesh Chair automatically adjusts the back tension to suit each individual, and further has a tension comfort control to allow users to fine-tune the setting with one simple rotation. The seatback tilt can lock in the upright position or move fluidly through four defined angles. Responsive padded armrests (width, depth, and pivot movements) with conveniently placed levers for quick and easy changes add to the comfort and customizable features.

The Around Mesh-Back Task Chair ($729) requires minimal assembly and has a weight capacity of 300 pounds. It comes in three combinations: banner fabric with gris frame, brier fabric with gris frame, and black fabric with ebony frame. For more information, visit teknionstore.com.

STONE YOUR PHONE VIA THE EGGTRONIC WIRELESS

Research shows that a cluttered work environment significantly can impact our cognition, emotions, behavior, and decisionmaking. With many working from home since the beginning of the pandemic, make-do workspaces have posed some challenges, not the least of which is the tremendous bundle of wires.

You can eliminate the hassle of constantly locating and relocating your phone charger with Eggtronic's Wireless Charging Stone. The classic and elegant stone blends in with your décor and

Tervis Is Terrific No Matter What You Imbibe

It happens every year. I start browsing the Internet for potential Christmas presents for friends and family and inevitably find just what I wanted—for myself. So it was with Tervis and its reusable drinkware with a lifetime guarantee—water bottles, tumblers, mugs, and wine glasses in gazillions of different designs that also can be customized with your own photos.

While I really liked the wide-mouth line of stainless steel water bottles, which come in 24 oz., 32 oz., and—can you believe it?—40 oz., it was the "favorite sports team" category that really caught my eye. The NFL section has its share of new additions—remember, the Los Angeles Rams have a new logo; the Raiders have moved from Oakland to Las Vegas; the old S.D. Chargers have become the L.A. Chargers; and the franchise in the nation's capital has been renamed the Washington Football Team. Still, we sought out our favs, the Cleveland Browns, and loaded up our cart with the Legend, Blitz, Edge, Black Leather, and Stripes designs.

Then it was on to college football and the Tennessee Volunteers, where I added a Carbon Fiber, Stainless Steel Slim Bottle, Vault, and All Over Tumbler. My cart was bulging at this point, and I had yet to make the MLB rounds with Spring Training-inspired Grapefruit and Cactus League drinkware, and, of course (for those who know me), a bunch of San Francisco Giants selections.

However, I was not quite done because I still needed to check out the NHL—more specifically, the New Jersey Devils, where I made the Ice, Shelf, and All-Over designs part of my jam-packed cart, which finally was ready for checkout.

All of the team logos absolutely pop. While they are guaranteed to stand up to heavy use and subsequent washing, ours already have found a home in our sports memorabilia display case. The graphics, no matter what franchise/team you root for, are sure to dazzle, and the same is true for the Star Wars, Mandalorian, Disney, Harry Potter, Grinch—the list at Tervis goes on and on—choices.

Why I Love Charging My Smartphone...Now

Why I Love Charging My Smartphone, Now

If you're like me, you are always looking for where you left your smartphone. I've spent way too much time searching high and low for my device.

Then, along came Einova Mundus Pro.

Now, I have a permanent charging station for my and my husband's smartphone. Now we both know where to go to find our smartphones. But wait....there is so much more. This charging station disinfects our phones, sunglasses, jewelry, and many other small objects that we carry around.
